

ALLERGEN MANAGEMENT FOR FOOD MANUFACTURERS

Training Course

MODULE 8

Self-Evaluation

- Questions

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

- 1. Qualitative risk assessment should be based on what type of evidence?
 - a. Subjective evidence
 - b. Objective evidence
 - c. None of the above

- 2. A “weight of evidence” approach to qualitative allergen risk assessment considers that some factors can have a stronger or a more direct effect on the occurrence of unintended allergens
 - a. True
 - b. False

- 3. In qualitative assessment, if a direct link between a given control measure and the occurrence or removal of unintended allergen(s) can be clearly demonstrated, it may be considered as very strong evidence
 - a. True
 - b. False

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

4. Qualitative assessment can provide sufficient information for PAL decisions

- a.True
- b.False

5. Qualitative assessments may be influenced by the experience of the assessors

- a.True
- b.False

6. Qualitative assessments should be conducted by a multidisciplinary, experienced team with thorough knowledge of the operation

- a.True
- b.False